Win a trip to Paris to present at the SIS Global Forum 2017

The SIS Global Forum University Competition is now open. The best abstract submission of innovative applications of Schlumberger Software will be selected, and the author will be invited to present at the Forum in Paris -- travel, registration and hotel expenses will be covered by Schlumberger.

This September 13--15 the Forum will take place at Le Palais des Congrès de Paris. Schlumberger anticipates Forum attendees from large and small independent oil companies, majors, and national oil companies, which collectively control up to 90% of world oil production. At the Forum, we will share how we are harnessing the power of data to extend science and our combined expertise into every corner of operations, enhancing performance and enabling unmatched value creation.

- Through our plenary program, attendees will hear industry leaders cast their vision for the future.
- Our immersive exhibition will showcase our latest advancements and the evolutionary steps we are taking to achieve our revolutionary vision.
- Attendees will hear peers present more than 120 in-depth technical talks across all aspects of the E&P life cycle.

To enter the competition please submit an abstract at www.sisforum2017.com/papers. Please send email notification after your submission consisting of your abstract and your CV to yfenjery@slb.com with email title format : UnivName_YourName_AbstractTitle.

Abstracts are due March 31, should be in English, contain no images, and be no longer than 400 words. The winning abstract will be announced by May 31.

Yours sincerely,

Kathryn Hite
